BOARD COMMENTS:

(8:46:26 PM)

Mrs. Vadla thanked those in attendance for coming and thanked the Pothast family for the snacks that they provided that afternoon.

BOARD COMMENTS:

Mr. Holt thanked the Kenai National Wildlife Refuge for allowing peninsula skiers to host a ski race on a Refuge lake during the weekend of December 1, 2012, and discussed the race success. He noted that he will request Refuge use again for the weekend of December 8, due to the cancellation of the "Lynx Loppett" ski race in Anchorage.

Mrs. Crawford thanked Skyview High School, Marathon School and Mr. Randy Neill, principal, for their presentations and excellent work for the district. She expressed appreciation for the day's worksessions. She thanked Greatland Adventure Academy Charter School for their work and wished them well. She announced that she judged the spelling bee at K-Beach Elementary School and taught a session on parliamentary procedure at Soldotna High School. She reported that she had recently returned from Zimbabwe, Africa, shared a picture of the hot lunch program at a school she visited which consisted of a wood fire and two pots (one pot contained polenta and the other contained bush beans), stated that the school has no electricity or computers but only chalkboards, and expressed appreciation for the dedication of the teachers and the enthusiasm of the students.

Mrs. Hilts noted the productivity and conversations of the day regarding education and expressed appreciation for the Board's work. She stated that two visiting legislators had joined the Board for dinner and discussion that evening. She thanked those in attendance for coming and staying until the end of the meeting. She thanked the Skyview High School guitar students for their performance, thanked the students for the robotics demonstration, and expressed appreciation for Marathon School and the opportunities for success offered to its students. She wished those in attendance a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Mr. Navarre commented on the productivity of the day and thanked Mrs. Downing for her work on the committee list. He expressed appreciation for Ms. Debbie Harris, her presentation and her 11 years of service to the district. He congratulated the Soldotna Elks Lodge 2706 for their long history of commitment to education and the community. He thanked Skyview High School, Marathon School and Mr. Randy Neill, principal, for their presentations and excellent work. He wished those in attendance a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and announced that he will play Santa Claus for three days in a Kenai Middle School play.

Mr. Anderson thanked Skyview High School, Marathon School and Mr. Randy Neill, principal, for the presentations and expressed special appreciation for the student guitar performance. He stated his strong support for Greatland Adventure Academy Charter School and other charter school and alternate education programs and encouraged the Greatland Adventure Academy Charter School Committee to contact existing district charter schools for assistance and ideas.

BOARD COMMENTS:

Ms. Hohl reported that she attended the Moose Pass Bizarre and noted that the Cooper Landing School participated in this craft fair. She attended the Alaska PTA Board of Managers meeting, the Alaska PTA Advocacy and Watch D.O.G.S. (Dads Of Great Students) training where they discussed ways to increase the presence of fathers in schools, and the Seward Prevention Coalition Meeting and stated that the coalition's next town hall meeting will be in January and the topic will be "Community Solutions to Underage Alcohol and Drug Use." She requested an excused absence for the January, 2013 board meeting. She thanked the Pothast family for the snacks that they provided that afternoon and wished the Pothast family, and those in attendance, a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Mrs. Downing agreed with Mrs. Hilts regarding the valuable work and conversations of the day regarding education and wished happy holidays to those in attendance.

Mr. Beard thanked Skyview High School, Marathon School and Mr. Randy Neill, principal, for their presentations, wished success to Greatland Adventure Academy Charter School and expressed appreciation for full board attendance at the meeting. He wished happy holidays to those in attendance.

Mr. Arness reminded the board to check their email for the school visitation sign-up sheet from Mrs. Tressler. He wished those in attendance a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
