Mind a-Mazes borough competition: Ups and Downs

Soldotna, October 9, 2013—Eighteen KPBSD schools are sending teams of students in grades 4 through 12 to compete in Mind a-Mazes, a KPBSD hands-on problem solving competition sponsored by the Quest program.*

Forty-seven teams are registered for the annual district-wide competition which will take place Saturday, October 12, 2013, at Soldotna Middle School, from 12:15 to approximately 3:30 p.m.

Mind a-Mazes encourages team work, research, and creative problem solving. Teams of three to five students work with an adult coach for several weeks to solve the common Long Term Problem. Two divisions—junior division (4-6th grade) and intermediate/senior division (7-12th grade)—compete. In addition to the Long Term Problem, a Spontaneous Problem is given to teams during the competition.

2013 Long Term problem: Ups and Downs

“Teams of three to five students will create a device that raises a weight a minimum height of one (1) meter. The weight should then descend exactly one (1) meter in height. The descent should take as close to two (2) minutes as possible. The device/weight will make a sound as the weight reaches the apex (top; high point). The device/weight will trigger an “event” when the weight concludes its descent.”

Training for Judges will take place the morning of the competition from 9:00–10:30 a.m. in the small gym at Soldotna Middle School, registration volunteers will be trained at 10:30 a.m., team check-in begins at 11:00 a.m., and group welcome and competition begins at 12:15.

*The Quest program is an instructional program for gifted and talented students, and is based on the principle that all students are to receive an education appropriate to their individual capabilities, interests, and needs, and should be provided with learning opportunities that help develop student abilities to the highest level. Gifted and talented students generally demonstrate high performance or capacity for high performance beyond age or grade expectations. They are atypical learners who require specialized learning experiences beyond the regular curriculum.

MEDIA RELEASE

Public Hearing on proposal to reconfigure Seward Middle School is October 24, 2013.

Soldotna, October 18, 2013—The question: “Should Seward Middle School be reconfigured to include grades 6, 7, and 8?” will be addressed in a public hearing, Thursday, October 24, 2013, 7:00 P.M., at Seward Middle School. This public hearing is part of a process that began with administrative discussions in the spring of 2012, and the first Seward Site Council meeting on November 8, 2012, with an agenda item addressing the topic.

Dr. Steve Atwater, Superintendent, received a letter from the Seward Site Council and the three Seward Principals requesting that the KPBSD Board of Education reconfigure Seward Middle School to include grades 6, 7, and 8.

“The next step in the process is for me to make a recommendation to the Board that either supports, or does not support this request,” said Atwater. “Before doing so, I will hold a public hearing regarding this proposal on Thursday, October 24, at 7:00 P.M. at Seward Middle School. The Seward and Moose Pass public, including staff and students, are invited to provide comment on this matter at this time. The hearing will be recorded so that the Board can, as necessary, view it.”
