Part III - Election for Payroll Deduction
(Complete this section if you are enrolling through your employer's benefit offering)

☐ I authorize my employer to deduct my HSA contributions from my payroll and forward them to my HSA.

My health plan coverage Type: Single ☐ Family ☐

Note – The HSA has a maximum annual contribution limit that is determined by your health insurance coverage (self-only/family). Your employer may choose to contribute to your HSA, which will count towards to your maximum contribution allowed. Your health plan eligibility determines the effective date of your HSA. If you are covered on December 1, you are considered eligible for the entire year and not required to pro-rate your contributions. If you cease to be an eligible individual during the next calendar year, any contributions over the prorated amount may be an excess contribution. You are solely responsible for determining whether contributions to your HSA exceed the maximum annual contribution limitation. You are also responsible for notifying the custodian of any excess contribution and requesting a withdrawal of the excess contribution together with any net income attributable to the excess contribution. For additional information regarding eligible and contribution limits please go to: www.irs.gov.

2020 Annual Contribution Limit				2021 Annual Contribution Limit

Part III Designation of Beneficiary(ies)

- If neither the primary nor contingent beneficiary is indicated, the individual or entity will be deemed to be the primary beneficiary.
- If any beneficiary dies before me, his or her interest shall terminate completely, and the percentage of any remaining death beneficiary(ies) shall be increased on a pro rata basis.
- If more than one primary beneficiary is designated and no distribution percentages are indicated, the death beneficiaries will be deemed to own equal share percentages in the HSA.
- Multiple contingent death beneficiaries with no share percentage indicated will also be deemed to share equally.
- If no primary death beneficiary(ies) survives me, the contingent death beneficiary(ies) shall acquire the designated share of my HSA.
- If you designate your spouse as primary death beneficiary or contingent death beneficiary of the HSA, the dissolution, termination, annulment or other legal termination of your marriage will automatically revoke such designation.
