Dear Dr. Peterson,

It has been a pleasure personally and professionally to serve KPBSD as the principal of Seward High School for the last three years. The rewards have been many and I feel that Seward High has made some positive changes for the benefit of its students. However, the time has come for me to explore other opportunities. Therefore, I respectfully request that I be released from my contract for the 2009-2010 school year.

Respectfully,

Ginger L. Blackmon, Ed.D.

Dr. Peterson,

The Kenai Peninsula Borough School District has the reputation for delivering a very high quality of education to students; this reputation attracted me to Homer High School as an administrator three years ago. In these three years, I have been a part of a progressive, forward-thinking administrative team, benefitted from resourceful and efficient business and accounting strategies (including a smart technology plan), utilized evaluation processes and tools that reflect best-practice, and developed a deep appreciation for the partnership between the District, the Borough and the community.

Homer's students epitomize the 21st-Century citizen: Creative, community-service oriented, technologically savvy and supportive of one another in the face of diversity. They also actively participate in conversations toward developing resolutions relating to school reform, human rights, the environment, politics and a myriad of issues that challenge our global society. In fact, these students have inspired me to continue with my own education so that I may also make meaningful contributions to our global society.

Engaging in the field of law allows me to address challenges from a systemic perspective. Having been raised within, and remain influenced by, an Alaskan Native concept of education, while concurrently benefitting from a Western educational system, I believe our future depends on blending indigenous elements of sustainability with Western scientific research. As our global society faces unprecedented opportunities, we also face devastating consequences. Envisioning the development of legal systems that derive from the strengths inherent in all human families motivates me to pursue the legal profession.

Please accept my resignation from my position as administrator of Homer High School, along with my deep appreciation for the success I have experienced here.

Respectfully,

Rayna Duñas, Principal
Homer High School

Dear Mr. Peterson,

I have thoroughly enjoyed the four years I have worked with KPBSD as a librarian. My experiences have been very positive while employed here. However, David has accepted a position with Anchorage School and we have decided that it is important to keep our family together. I politely request that KPBSD accept this letter of resignation and release me from my 2009-2010 teaching contract.

Sincerely,

Sheri Legg
