APPROVAL OF MINUTES: The School Board Minutes of April 5, 2010, were approved as printed.

SCHOOL REPORT:

Mr. John Hersrud, Seward Middle School, introduced Mrs. Beck who directed the choir in a song titled, Bless the Broken Road. Mr. Hersrud stated that the school focused their work on the three District goals: using and implementing the quality learning model, collaborating, and integration of technology. He featured several student-created web pages. He reported on the six pillars of character in which examples of each were created by the students. He noted that Seward Middle students raised $3700 for Haiti earthquake relief. He distributed copies of the school's weekly newspaper.

Mr. Trevan Walker, Seward High School, reported that the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges accreditation self-study report was used to develop the school's goals. He explained the process used to rewrite the school's mission statement, guiding principals, and vision statement using input from students, staff, parents and community members. He provided a video documenting student interviews and an explanation by Mr. Walker. He thanked the Board for their support of music at Seward High School and introduced the concert choir who sang, Now is the Month of May, directed by Mr. Kyle Schneider. Miss Tyler Washburn and Mr. Gregory von Borstel, students, each reported on their senior service learning projects.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS:

Mrs. Arlene Carpenter, Seward resident and parent, asked the Board for their support of the arts, especially at the middle school and elementary school level. She stated that the schools need to continue with vocal as well as instrumental music. She commended music teachers Mrs. Beck and Mr. Schneider.

Mr. Jesse Atherton, Seward High senior, explained the process that was used to purchase an electric LED reader sign to advertise community events. He stated that he and a committee of booster club members, students, parents, principals and a Seward City Council member worked on the project with the assistance of the Association of Alaska School Boards, American Legion, GCI, the Seward Schools Booster Club, City of Seward, and PTSA.

Ms. Amy Haddow, Seward Site Based Council chairperson, stated that the committee sign is the best promotion of community engagement and thanked Mrs. Julie Lindquist for her involvement in the sign project and the community Frisbee golf course. She noted that the sign replacement was Mr. Atherton's senior learning project.

Mr. Dave Hamner, Seward resident and parent, stated that his family decided to move to the Seward community because of the quality of the school system and community support. He asked the Board to support music programs.

Miss Elena Hamner, student, told the Board about her music experience playing the clarinet at Seward Elementary.

HEARING OF DELEGATIONS:

Ms. C.J. Rea, Kenai Fjords National Park education specialist, reported that she is charged with the promotion of conservation, education, and stewardship among District students and credited District teachers with many of the educational ideas which are then piloted in Seward. She provided booklets titled, Environmental Education Programs for K-8th Grade Groups and A Teacher's Guide to Exit Glacier.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS:

Mr. Arness reported that he received a thank you card from Mrs. Douglas which will be shared among the Board members. Dr. Atwater announced that the Alaska Student Activities Association approved the co-opting of schools which will allow schools with enrollments under 451 to co-opt with another school under the enrollment of 451 for specific activities. He reported that the Department of Education and Early Development has granted a waiver to the District from the state's testing schedule to accommodate the Russian Old Believer calendar so that tests can be given a day earlier next school year. He reported that the Department of Corrections has assured him that Spring Creek will continue to house a high school for incarcerated youth. He announced that Seward High School will host a high school graduation ceremony on May 4 for Mr. Joshua Kompkoff and that the student will receive a diploma and a special commendation from Governor Parnell.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE, SITE COUNCIL AND/OR P.T.A., K.P.A.A., K.P.E.A., K.P.E.S.A, BOROUGH ASSEMBLY:

Mrs. LaDawn Druce thanked the Seward Middle and High School choirs and their directors and recognized the student presenters. She praised the new teacher evaluation system. She invited those present to attend the May 4 Borough Assembly to show support for great public education for every child. She requested that the Board remove 10a.(4), Approval of New Teacher Contracts, from the Consent Agenda because there are District teachers who do not have contracts for the 2010-2011 school year who could fill those jobs.

Mr. Hal Smalley, Assembly Member, introduced other Assembly Members in the audience (Ms. Sue McClure, Mr. Bill Smith, and Mr. Mako Haggerty). He explained that committee meetings will begin earlier in the day on May 4 and that the business meeting will begin at 7:00 p.m. at the Seward City Offices. He commended the school choirs who performed and the students who presented their community service projects.

Ms. Margie Warner reminded those present that May 2 through 8 is Teacher Appreciation Week and noted that it takes support staff as well as teachers to educate children.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT:

Dr. Atwater reported that the curriculum audit has been concluded and that the final report is due in July. He reported that the Information Services Department has completed an upgrade to the District's storage capacity. He reviewed actions taken by the state legislature and noted that there is no new funding plan for education. He announced that the legislature passed the Governor's Performance Scholarship and that more details will come. He reported that the Borough Assembly passed a resolution to set a funding floor for the School District for the 2010-2011 school year which results in a $4 million reduction and noted that he has taken a series of measures to meet the reduction and asked the Board for their support.

MOTION

Mr. Navarre moved the Board support the Superintendent's proposed funding plan. Ms. Downing seconded.

Motion carried unanimously.
