Re: Due Process for Students
Date: February 13, 2007

In recent past meetings there have been questions regarding what constitutes due process for students. This work session is designed to help the board have a working knowledge of the legal requirements for due process for students in discipline situations.

The following topics will be covered:

- Due process procedures for student suspensions of 10 day or less
- Due process procedures for student suspension s of 11 or more days
- Rights of students during hearings
- Goss v. Lopez-The Supreme Court Case that set the legal guidelines for student due process
- KPBSD AR 5144.11
