Kenai Peninsula Borough School District
Board of Education Meeting News In Brief

April 16, 2007 – 7:00 p.m.   Borough Administration Building - 148 N. Binkley
Dr. Donna Peterson, Superintendent   Soldotna, Alaska

SCHOOL REPORT: Ms. Carolyn Cannava, Soldotna Elementary Principal, showed a presentation on Literacy Centers. It included video clips from teaching sessions at the school and variousgraphs which noted student CBM charts. Ms. Cannava presented parent, Debbie Carroll and her daughter Gracie. Gracie is a 2nd grader at Soldotna Elementary. Gracie did a reading from the Dr. Seuss book, "The places you'll go", to demonstrated her increased CBM level.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT: Dr. Peterson noted her appreciation for the recognition from the Board on the Virginia Tech shooting incident. She stressed the importance of EAP drills in our schools and noted that each school will have EAP training in the fall. She announced that she was present at Kenai Alternative Administrator talks, and noted that interviews for the Port Graham principal-teacher are on April 17, 2007.

FINANCIAL REPORT: Mrs. Douglas presented that financial report to the Board and noted the Quarterly Budget Transfer report.

RESIGNATIONS: The Board unanimously approved resignations from Sharyn Lee Harris-Super, Special Education Resource, Homer High; Ned Clooten, Science, Nikiski Middle/High; Kaye Lawson, Occupational Therapist, Sterling Elementary; and Chris Cowans, Grade 5, Tustumena.

RECOMMENDATION OF NON-TENURED TEACHER FOR TENURE: The Board unanimously approved the contract and tenure for non-tenured teacher for Catherine Kibling, Skyview. Tentative assignment: Special Ed/Resource; Certification: K-12 Special Ed/Mildly Handicapped.

NEW ADMINISTRATOR CONTRACT: The Board unanimously approved the New Administrator contact for Megan Reinseth, Principal/Teacher at Nanwalek.

NEXT REGULAR MEETING: The next regularly scheduled School Board Meeting is Monday, May 7, 2007 at, 7:00 p.m., in the Seward High School Auditorium, Seward, Alaska

* * * * * * * * * *