APPROVAL OF MINUTES:

The School Board minutes of April 13, 2009 were approved as printed.

AWARDS AND PRESENTATIONS:

The Board presented a Golden Apple Award to Daniel Krier, Seward High School Athletic director/teacher, for his service to the District. Although not in attendance, a Golden Apple Award was given to Roger Steinbrecher, former Seward High School coach, and was accepted on his behalf by Ken Carr.

SCHOOL REPORT:

Mr. Larry Nauta, Aurora Borealis Charter School administrator, gave a student-created PowerPoint presentation highlighting the school's entrance lottery procedures and the project of assembling the new playground equipment.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS:

Mr. Jerry Dixon, former teacher, thanked Dr. Peterson, School Board members, teachers and administrators of the Seward area. He noted that his children have done well in the Seward schools and added that he enjoyed teaching in this District.

Ms. Phyllis Shoemaker, University of Alaska-Fairbanks Seward Marine Center, reported on the recently held National Ocean Sciences Bowl and reviewed the competition. She added that she would like to see more District participation and support for the teachers who sponsor the competition.

Mrs. Stacy Lane, Boys and Girls Club representative, thanked the Board for allowing the Seward Boys and Girls Club to be housed at Seward Elementary and for use of the school. She stated that there are approximately 80 children enrolled in the club which provides a safe place for students to go after school.

Mr. Tom Callahan, school bus driver, stated that he objects to the use of private vehicles, and coaches who drive students on field trips or cocurricular activities, because it puts licensed bus drivers out of work and is a safety concern.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS:

Mr. Cliff Draper, former teacher and current coach, provided a list of the desired attributes of a good administrator and good faculty.

Mrs. Monica Luther, Seaview Community Services representative, summarized the services provided by Seaview Community Services and distributed two agency brochures.

Mrs. Laura Beck, teacher, provided an update regarding the Seward High School music program and a recent trip to the Borough Mass Choir Festival. She encouraged the Board to continue their support of music programs in Seward.

Mrs. Julie Lindquist, Moose Pass resident, stated that there is turmoil at Seward High School among students, parents, community and staff. She thanked the Golden Apple recipients for their contributions. She commended Ms. Martha Fleming for her work with students and read a statement about Ms. Fleming written by a student.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS:

Dr. Peterson reported that the Board received a copy of a letter signed by all Kenai Peninsula legislators regarding Borough Assembly funding to the cap. She reported that the Board is receiving copies of administrative career development reports. She reported that the District received a commendation from the Alaska legislature for the Magna Awards honorable mention.

Mrs. Crawford reminded the Board that there will be a worksession on June 1 to discuss the Board's self-evaluation and that the evaluation forms are to be completed by May 22.

Mrs. Crawford reported that the superintendent evaluation form will be used as a reference for discussion with the new superintendent during a short worksession on June 1.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE,
SITE COUNCIL AND/OR
P.T.A., K.P.A.A., K.P.E.A.,
K.P.E.S.A, BOROUGH
ASSEMBLY:

Ms. Amy Haddow, Seward Site Based Council chairperson, reported that the Site Council's community engagement goal is being fulfilled at the elementary, middle, and high schools and provided examples. She asked the Board for continued financial support for programs beyond the basic subjects.

Mrs. LaDawn Druce, KPEA President, reported that recent negotiations meetings ended Friday afternoon and came very close to a positive contract, but is on hold until August 2009. She thanked Mrs. Katie Turnbull, Seward Elementary teacher, for her work on the KPEA Bargaining Team. She noted that the Board will take action on the nontenure teacher contracts which will allow them to make plans for next year. She encouraged the public to attend the Borough Assembly meeting on May 5 at the Seward City Hall and to testify regarding the necessity of funding the District to the cap.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS/
COMMENTS:

Mrs. Julie Lindquist asked if the sports schedules could be more consistent and less changes and that more attention be paid to safety concerns and ice on sidewalks. She noted that the Seward music programs are valuable.

Mr. Ken Carr, former teacher, reported that he recently worked with junior class members on job interview skills and noted that it was a pleasure to listen to them and hear about their future plans. He encouraged community members to talk with students. He thanked Dr. Peterson for her work as superintendent of the District.

Ms. Carla Nichols, former Seward High School graduate and currently a teacher, reported on the partnership with the Alaska Sea Life Center and the World of Work (WOW) Program. She reported that the program was established to increase rigor for marine biology students.

Mrs. Cindy Pack, PTSA for Seward Schools, reported that PTSA may sponsor CPR classes next school year for high school students.

COMMENTS:(continued)*

Mrs. Monica Luther, Seward resident, reported on the Seward Statehood Symposium that included many community activities and presentations from elementary students on research they conducted about the last 50 years of Alaska and Seward. She thanked the Board for encouraging the Seward High service project and commended one particular student who has been volunteering with the Infant Learning Program playgroup.

Mrs. Laura Beck, Seward Middle teacher, reported on art program activities in partnership with community members and organizations.

Mrs. Sandy Deland, PTSA member and Girl Scout Troop leader, commended the students and teachers for the amount of time and research put into Seward Statehood Symposium. She praised Seward teachers and related a story regarding her daughter's successes in spelling and math.

BOARD COMMENTS:

Mrs. Vadla thanked the Seward Travel Club for providing the dinner. She thanked Mr. Nauta for the school report. She congratulated Mr. Krier and Mr. Steinbrecher. She thanked those who provided comments and the Seward teachers for providing a quality education for students.

Mr. Holt expressed appreciation for the Seward music programs. He reported that he assisted with the Skyview High School talent show which was organized by the National Honor Society students. He stated that community organizations and community projects are important to schools and commended the Seward residents for their involvement. He encouraged those present to attend the Borough Assembly meeting on May 5 because it is important for the Assembly to hear from members of the community.
