Board of Education Meeting News In Brief

January 16, 2006 – 7:00 p.m.
Dr. Donna Peterson, Superintendent

Borough Administration Building - 148 N. Binkley
Soldotna, Alaska

SCHOOL REPORTS: Mr. Lee Young, Connections Program principal, gave a computer generated PowerPoint listing the reasons why the Connections Program is the best choice in home school programs. He listed the program's philosophy, accountability requirements, available resources, mission statement, curricular options, and noted that students are issued a Dell computer and upon completion of the high school program, are issued a KPBSD high school diploma. Assessment and AYP information was provided. Mr. Aleks Pfaffe, Connections Program student, concluded the presentation by reporting on his positive home schooling experience through the Connections Program.

Mr. Mark Norgren, Cooper Landing Elementary principal, gave a computer-generated presentation highlighting the school staff, students, community involvement, volunteers, and the success of multi-grade education. Mrs. Joyce Koppert explained her approach to teaching at a multi-grade school. She highlighted art projects, noted that she has 14 regular volunteers who help with physical education, math, reading, art, school plays, and a music festival. Ms. Michelle Stewart, parent, and her daughter, Miss Jessica Stewart, praised the staff and community volunteers for the high-quality education being provided to students at Cooper Landing Elementary.

HEARING OF DELEGATIONS: Dr. Marilyn Jackson, Community Action Coalition and Dr. Matt Dammeyer, Central Peninsula General Hospital, provided information about a prevention needs assessment to be given to students who have parent permission. The grant-funded survey will tentatively be given February 22, 2006 and is designed to identify risk factors and protective factors.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT: Mr. Stewart presented the 2005-2006 Midyear Report on Goals. The report includes current progress on goals, current progress on work plans, an update on other work plans, a list of other unanticipated issues, and a timeline graphic to illustrate the District Office workload for the second semester. He reported that Dr. Peterson is currently on family medical leave. He reported that on January 17 and again on January 18 Gary Marx will give a presentation for District staff titled, Trends in Education. The public is invited to attend the presentation at 7:00 p.m. on January 17 at the Challenger Learning Center. He reported that Budget Forums will be held on January 23 at Seward High, January 25 at Skyview High, and January 30 at Homer High. He reported that the Site Council and Parent Group Training will be held at the Soldotna Sports Center on January 24. He noted that there will be a special administrator meeting on January 20. He noted that schools south of Ninilchik were closed on Friday, January 13 because of ash fallout from the eruption of Mt. Augustine.

FINANCIAL REPORT: Mrs. Douglas presented the financial report of the District for the period ending December 31, 2005.

BUDGET TRANSFER REPORT: Mrs. Douglas reported on quarterly budget transfers Numbers 49 through 187 for various schools and departments within the District.
