Dear Mr. Fields:

With a heavy heart, I'm writing this letter to inform you I will not be returning to Kenai Central High School for the 2011-2012 school year. As the end of the school year approaches, I'll gladly fulfill my contract length and duties; however, my last day with this district will be on the last scheduled contract day of May 25th, 2011.

Within the confines of this letter, I cannot express the honor and pleasure it's been to work for you and with your staff. For all the hours I've dedicated to educating the youth of this community, I feel I'm leaving with the most education: the professional knowledge I've gained here is truly invaluable. As I continue my career in education, I doubt I'll find a more supportive staff or a friendlier student body; resigning from my position has been one of toughest decision I've had to make.

I wish nothing but the best for this school and community and if I can be of any assistance in the future, please let me know.

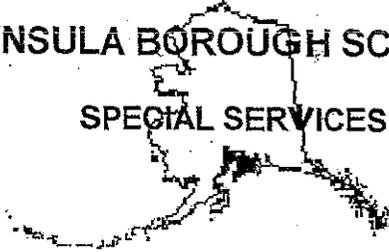

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Peterson,

I have been presented with the amazing opportunity to go on a yearlong trip where I would have the privilege of traveling to 11 countries and working with the people and children in each one. This opportunity arose after I signed and turned in my contract last week. With this being the case, I respectfully and humbly ask to be released from my contract for this coming school year. I love working in this district and at Nikolaevsk School specifically. It is a special community and I hope to return to it someday.

Sincerely,
Vivian Norenberg

Randy Neill
Skyview High School

Dear Randy,

I would like to take this opportunity to inform you that I will not be returning to Skyview for the 2011-2012 school year. My husband has not been able to find a good job here. With the current economic situation we have struggled being a single income household. We have decided that Soldotna does not meet the needs of our family and will be relocating.

I thank you for the support and guidance throughout this year, and wish you the best in the upcoming years. I thoroughly enjoyed my professional year at Skyview High School and the support that you have given me throughout the year.

Sincerely,

Amanda Williams
