3:45 in the Teacher's lounge

Attendance-

Mrs. Gilman, Pauline Rizzo, Michelle Burnett, Wally Hufford, Casey Tauriainen, Julie Ware, Lauren Pilatti

Approval of minutes and agenda-

Teacher's Report-

- Busy in Primary wing
- A lot of work to manage online and in class learning
- K is doing great and all attending in class.
- Intermediate is doing well and everyone seems to be doing well.
- Bus drivers say students are coming out too early for bus routes.

Classified Teachers-

- Routines are getting done and kids are doing well.
- Excited to be in classrooms with their kids and General Ed teachers.

Parent Report-

- Checking the borough website to check numbers and what level we are at each day.
- Happy to have kids at school again!
- Parent pick up- It is going smooth and it is pretty quick. How do we get people holding up the line to move forward?

Community Report-

- Many people are talking about "what if's" and masks in schools.
- Talk has calmed down over time with school going.

Principal report-

- Things are going very well at school with students. KIDS ARE BACK!
- Small class sizes which have been great for learning, teachers playing on the playground due to smaller numbers and more opportunities to interact with students.
- 198 students enrolled as of today at NNS with remote students. Projected was 335 students for the school year. As a district we are a few students under 8,000.
- We have reduced our remote learners from 25 to 17 at this time.
- NNS smart start guidance review- volunteers can now be community members.

OLD Business-

New Business-

- Wally Nominates Mrs. T for president of site council – Mrs. T accepted position
- Reviewed By-laws
- Students in transition program- students with hardship will get help from schools. Transportation is provided for them to get to their schools. NNS works with Nikiski Children's fund to help provide needs for students.
- What do we as a council want to work on this school year? How do we adjust to the pandemic and teaching?

Next meeting-

October 26th – Monday at 3:45
