Old Business:

Late work Policy BP 5121

Assessment should be based on impartial, consistent observation of the quality of the student's work and his/her mastery of course content and objectives as demonstrated through classroom participation, homework and tests. The student's behavior and effort shall be reported in separate evaluations, not in his/her academic grade.

Departments worked together to design a department policy in response to the late work challenges

Schoolwide Late Work Policy

Our goal is to educate students and provide them with opportunities to grow academically while increasing personal responsibility. Research shows that when teachers place emphasis on the learning process and provide a supportive environment, students are more likely to be engaged. In some circumstances, such as math, it is important that students stay caught up as the information builds upon prior knowledge. The structure of other classes allows more flexibility to accept late assignments.

In all subject areas,

- Please provide grace to your students during extenuating circumstances.
- Three or more late assignments in your class= parent communication. Try to get to the root of the problem. Is there something going on that we don't know about? Many times, parents are unaware their child is not turning in work.
- If this pattern continues, please refer the student to I-team.

Late work accepted all quarter for full credit:

Timeliness will be addressed in assignment rubrics
- Math
Assignments will be accepted for full credit until the unit test (so this would be kind of a middle of the quarter deadline and end of the quarter deadline)
- SPED department:
Late work will be accepted for full credit as stated on their IEP. It will be individualized per the student's individual needs and team agreement.
SPED teachers will choose the late date cutoff per student needs.

PTO or Booster Club startup Mr. Harrison is hosting meetings to begin this process. Parents seem apprehensive about joining a PTO.

The Site Based Council recommends that Skyview start up a Booster Club based on community and parent feedback on increased participation for Booster Clubs over PTO/PTA.

New Business:

Tardy Policy: (John) – This will be revisited during our next meeting as we are still gathering data.

Get Caught Reading- Tickets will be given out for students who are caught ready. We have a bike and other items to give away.Begin 2nd Qtr

Cell phone policy updated to include smart devices – with our cell phone policy, we have had an increase in students wearing smart devices (ie smart watches), and those being disruptive in class. We are recommending a change to our cell phone policy to include smart devices.

Cell Phones –Cell phones may be used to make or receive calls before the first bell rings in the morning, at lunch, or after school is dismissed in the afternoon. Phones must be turned off and locked in the student's own locker. On the first offense, the student may pick up the phone after school and take it home. Any additional violations will require that the phone be picked up by the parent or guardian and may result in additional disciplinary actions.

Motion to approve by Andrea Eggleston, second by Amy Kruse, all in favor, none opposed.
