

Palmer Bailey
Golden Apple Award Recipient
April 19, 2004

Palmer Bailey serves as volunteer extraordinaire, providing professional expertise and constant support for the staff and students of Nikolaevsk School. Mr. Bailey is also active in community-wide volunteer efforts which greatly impact the students and families of Nikolaevsk.

Mr. Bailey has spent untold hours as guest lecturer, site council chair, clock operator and announcer for basketball games and tournaments, engineer consultant and volunteer in the construction class. He has a wealth of knowledge and experience to share with the students and staff of Nikolaevsk.

Palmer Bailey is a trained geologist specializing in glaciers. Retired from the US Army as division commander and also retired as a West Point instructor, Mr. Bailey currently teaches college classes at the Kachemak Bay branch of Kenai Peninsula College.

Please join us, the Kenai Peninsula Borough School District Board of Education, in recognizing Palmer Bailey for his amazing dedication and outstanding service to education on the Kenai Peninsula.
