Application Scoring Information

Essay (20 points)

The Scholarship Committee seeks to identify the high school senior(s) that stands out from their peers as a result of personal aptitude and demonstrated diligence in meeting duties and obligations to family, school, community and self. The essay provides insight into the applicant's value system and goals. Significant personal events will reflect on character development and the applicant's personal value system resulting in a desire to contribute to society through achieving worthwhile goals.

Example: I want to complete a degree in _____ at _____ University in order to contribute to _____.

Involvement in Activities (School & Community) (20 points)

College admission standards recognize that being socially successful can be as important as being academically successful. The Scholarship Committee seeks to identify the well-rounded student that has been successful in areas other than just academics. Participation in school activities, community service, scouting, employment, and contests will be considered.

Academics (20 points)

Proper academic preparation is important to be successful at a specified academic endeavor. While a high grade point average (GPA) reflects success in classes, the actual classes taken are important to insure proper academic preparation to be successful in an institution of higher learning.

Example: An expressed desire to enter the medical profession should be backed by the student having taken the best science courses offered by their school.

Financial Plan (15 points)

Needing funds to attend school is common among all college bound students. Evaluation will be made whether the student has a reasonable plan as to how their education will be funded.

Not all college bound students have had an equal opportunity during their school years. If there are hardships that should be taken into consideration please explain (examples; low-income families, students on their own, physical challenges, etc.)

References (10 points)

What do other people think about the applicant in terms of aptitude and diligence in meeting duties and obligations to family, school, community and self?

Attendance at an institution of higher learning in Alaska (5 points)
