are necessary for next school year. He clarified that the money can only be used for transportation. He announced that Governor Parnell has proclaimed May as Water Safety Month.

Mrs. Margie Warner, KPESA president, congratulated Mrs. Tachick on 34 years of service to the District and welcomed Mrs. Tressler to her new position. She announced that May 6 begins National Teacher Appreciation Week. She agreed with the comments regarding the need for an increase in substitute pay, especially paraprofessionals, and urged the Board to consider an increase.

Mrs. LaDawn Druce, KPEA president, urged the Board to support the proposed teacher hires. She called attention to the proposed teacher resignations and loss of experience to the District. She thanked the teachers that taught her youngest son and added that he will graduate from high school at the end of the school year. She announced that May 8 is National Teacher Appreciation Day and thanked the Board for supporting District teachers. She reported that she will join Mr. Dusek on May 23-24 as a member of the Alaska Team presenting at the Labor Management Collaboration Conference in Cincinnati, Ohio. She explained that she and Mr. Dusek will profile the District's Effective Instruction Committee and process. She thanked House Speaker Chenault for his vote regarding K-12 education funding and the recognition of Mrs. Tachick for her service to the District. She noted that she will miss the June meeting. She thanked the Board for their service.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT:

Dr. Atwater announced that bids for school roofing projects were lower than expected and as a result, more schools were added. May 8 is National Teacher Appreciation Day and he thanked districtwide teachers for their hard work. He urged those present to post a message on Facebook or tweet a thank you. He commended Kenai Middle School students for competing in the national Math Counts and the national Future Problem Solving teams. He announced that Spring Creek High School will relocate to the Anchorage School District and thanked the school staff and the correctional center superintendent, Mr. Craig Turnbull, for their work. He thanked Mrs. Sally Tachick for her years of service and welcomed Mrs. Debbie Tressler, her replacement.
