SCHOOL REPORT:(7:10:01 PM)

Ms. Sherry Hingley, principal of Port Graham School, gave a computer generated presentation highlighting the school grounds, teacher housing, staff, students, classroom configuration, student attendance, weather, Project Grad, the challenges of the school and its location (including travel), the Key-Hole Gardening Project, welding, kayak building, school goals, and the school-wide reading program. She stated the school does not have its own sports program but, through coordination with Susan B. English School, Port Graham students are able to participate in basketball with Seldovia students. She discussed the Workforce Academy held at Susan B. English School that includes students from Port Graham, Seldovia, Nanwalek, Tyonek and Connections.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS:(7:23:41 PM)

Mrs. Amy Hankins, Seward Site Council member, spoke in support of Seward 6th grade students remaining at Seward Elementary School, discussed the procedure used by the Seward Site Council to obtain survey and voting results for a recent resolution to move the Seward 6th grade students to the middle school, and provided the Board with copies of information regarding 6th grade student test scores, and articles discussing the impacts of students starting middle school in 6th grade. She discussed a recent recommendation to the Board, from the Seward Site Council, that school administrators be non-voting members on site councils and the effects this change might have had on the Seward 6th grade reconfiguration vote.

HEARING OF DELEGATIONS:(7:30:25 PM)

Mrs. Evdokaya Basargin and Mr. Kiril Basargin spoke on behalf of community members to request a Russian Language teacher solely for Razdolna School. Mr. Basargin discussed the need to preserve the community's traditional language, the unique needs of Razdolna School, the requirement that KPBSD students be offered a foreign language, and presented research regarding improving language skills for Russian Orthodox Old Believer students.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS:(7:38:14 PM)

Dr. Atwater announced that Mr. David Barton, Alaska Coordinator of Access Alaska, will conduct an American Disabilities Act (ADA) audit of District school facilities and that the audit will take place from April through October, 2013. He reported that Kenai Peninsula College is sponsoring a commemorative coin project to celebrate the 50th anniversaries of the college, the Kenai borough and the school district, that Mr. Sterling Sears has been suggested as the person to honor on the coin, and Dr. Atwater will be working with the Board to make a formal decision. He congratulated Kenai Central High School for being selected as a 2013 Top American Field Service (AFS) School which recognizes the school's work with the international student exchange program.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE, SITE COUNCIL AND/OR P.T.A., K.P.A.A., K.P.E.A., K.P.E.S.A, BOROUGH ASSEMBLY:(7:40:04 PM)

Mrs. LaDawn Druce, KPEA president, reported that the union membership voting on the KPEA Negotiated Agreement will be completed on April 7, 2013, and the results will be forwarded to the District on Monday, April 8, (to accommodate the April 9, Special Board Meeting where the various agreements will be considered). She thanked the Board for their letter regarding concerns over Senate Joint Resolution 9 and House Joint Resolution 1 and stated that she feels this legislation is harmful to public education. She discussed House Bill 162 (a bill regarding teacher tenure), and requested that the Board not support this bill.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE, SITE COUNCIL AND/OR
P.T.A., K.P.A.A., K.P.E.A.,
K.P.E.S.A, BOROUGH ASSEMBLY:

Mrs. Margie Warner, KPESA president, thanked Ms. Hingley for the school presentation. She congratulated Miss Shaylee Rizzo and her father, Mr. Joe Rizzo, for Shaylee earning the Prudential Spirit of Community Award. She stated that she attended the Education Support Professionals (ESP) National Conference in Louisville, Kentucky, and the NEA-Alaska Board of Directors' meeting in Juneau. She noted that the KPESA membership area meetings were complete, voting on the Negotiated Agreement has begun, and the results will be forwarded to the District on Monday, April 8.

Mrs. Mica VanBuskirk, Seward Site Based Council, discussed the recent vote by the Seward Site Council to reconfigure Seward schools (moving 6th grade students to the middle school), assured the Board that proper procedures were followed to gather the vote, discussed course selection loss at Seward Middle School if 6th grade students are not moved, and requested that the Board support the reconfiguration proposal. She requested that Pupil Teacher Ratio (PTR) in middle and high schools with less than 200 students be changed from 1 to 24 to 1 to 17 and asked the Board to review Point 3 of District's 2010 Curriculum Audit to further support this request.

Mr. Brent Johnson, Borough Assembly, stated that he is available to deliver comments and messages from the Board to the Borough Assembly.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT:

(7:55:14 PM)

Dr. Atwater noted the summer maintenance and capital projects list in the General Information packet, stated that this summer's roofing projects will expend the remaining bond money, and that he is working with Mayor Navarre to develop options to allow for future roofing repairs. He announced that the Community Block Grant of $154,000, for the planning and design of a new school at Kachemak-Selo, was approved; that on April 16, the Borough Assembly will consider an ordinance to accept the grant money, and subsequently, the District will join with the Borough to begin planning the design of the new school. He announced that at the recent Math Counts competition in Anchorage, Kenai Middle School (KMS) placed 2nd (missing 1st by one point), Homer Middle School (HMS) placed 4th, and Mr. Drake Thomas (KMS student) qualified for the state team and will represent Alaska in the national competition.

FINANCIAL REPORT:

(8:00:27 PM)

Mr. Jones presented the District financial report for the period ending February 28, 2013.

BOARD REPORTS:

(8:03:24 PM)

Mrs. Downing reported that the Legislative Committee held their second meeting at 1:00 p.m. today, discussed recent activities including Board and District administration attendance at the AASB March Legislative Fly-In and her recent trip to Washington D.C. where she met with U.S. Senate education representatives, and stated that the committee will continue to track and testify on state legislation.

Ms. Hohl reported that she has been unable to attend the Cooper Landing Site Council meetings this school year but that she did attend the Cooper Landing Annual St. Patrick's Day fundraiser and discussed a yearbook compiled for the event.

Mr. Beard reported that he was asked to serve on the BP Teacher of Excellence Committee but was unable to attend the meeting and he expressed appreciation for the selection process and the teachers that are chosen.

Mr. Navarre reported that he attended the AASB March Legislative Fly-In in Juneau, expressed appreciation for the quality of the conference and speakers. He thanked the state legislators and their staff members for meeting with the Board members and stated that he is hopeful that the state will provide additional funds to the District.

Mrs. Hilts stated that she attended the Board Policy Committee meeting today where they discussed site council voting, student nutrition and wellness, acceptable concession stand food choices, students in middle school taking high school algebra courses, and school facility use including the requirement for liability insurance and concussion training. She attended the AASB March Legislative Fly-In, expressed appreciation for the opportunity to be a part of the selection committee for the AASB June B. Nelson Scholarship program, and commented on the quality of the applicant essays.

Mrs. Vadla reported that while attending the AASB March Legislative Fly, she also attended the Alaska School Leaders Symposium on Art and discussed the program and the importance of art in education. She displayed her jacket and jewelry she purchased recently in New Zealand and a matching scarf (made by her daughter) and discussed the works of Mr. Yaniv Janson, an autistic artist and author. She reported that she attended the AASB March Legislative Fly-In, discussed the conference topics covered, presentations attended, and the meetings with state legislators and Commissioner Hanley (Alaska Department of Education and Early Development). She stated that she felt the meetings were successful and showed the District well.

Mrs. Crawford reported that she attended the AASB March Legislative Fly-In, discussed the AASB June B. Nelson Scholarship program essays, noted the decreased availability of the state legislators during the Fly-In, and discussed the effects of the shorter, 90 day session. She stated that she testified at the Legislative Information Office regarding Senate Joint Resolution 9 and House Bill 65.

Mr. Anderson reported that he attended the AASB March Legislative Fly-In; discussed the meetings with legislators; expressed appreciation for the preparation work done by AASB, the Board's teamwork, and Mrs. Crawford's years of experience; stated that the Board attended a reception at the Governor's Mansion; and the effectiveness of the personal visits and letters written to legislators.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS/
COMMENTS:

(9:46:41 PM)

Mrs. Terri Tidwell expressed appreciation for the school administrators and staff, their dedication and work and discussed the need for an increased rapport between school staff and District administration.

Mr. Matt Fischer discussed the need for school staff to be better included in District office processes and decisions. He requested that the Board consider all Soldotna Site Council and teacher opinions before deciding on the reconfiguration for the Soldotna middle schools.

Dr. Nels Anderson stated that he missed working with the School Board and expressed appreciation for the Board's work. He thanked Mrs. Crawford for teaching his son. He noted that the $150 million District budget was passed without comment. He discussed a recent Alaska School Activities Association (AASA) issue with a student and recognized Mrs. Crawford and Mr. Todd Syverson for their assistance, and suggested the Board consider AASA policy revisions regarding student discipline.

BOARD COMMENTS:

(9:55:44 PM)

Mr. Holt thanked the Skyview students for their presentation regarding the Soldotna Area schools reconfiguration, expressed appreciation for time that he was employed at the school, and thanked Mrs. Terri Tidwell for her work. He discussed the importance of encouraging high school students in the Soldotna area to see the high school reconfiguration as an opportunity to share their outlooks and vision.

Mrs. Crawford thanked the public for their testimony and Mr. Dusek for his work regarding the Soldotna Area schools reconfiguration. She congratulated Miss Shaylee Rizzo on her award. She thanked Ms. Hingley for her presentation.

Mr. Anderson noted the number of "no" votes he posted during the evening and expressed appreciation for the ability to vote. He commented on Board committee composition and power limits. He thanked Dr. Anderson for attending and for his past mentorship.

Ms. Hohl stated that she attended the Seward PTSA meeting, and the Seward Choose Respect March. She attended the Alaska State PTA meeting and noted that two Kenai Peninsula residents are currently serving on State PTA Board. She thanked Mrs. Vadla for representing the Board at the Alaska School Leaders Symposium on Art and discussed District art programs. She thanked Dr. Anderson for attending. She stated that she did not believe the District's alcohol policy has changed.

Mr. Beard stated that, in conversations with Soldotna High and Skyview High students, the students have been undecided about the reconfiguration and he feels the change will serve as a life lesson. He expressed appreciation for serving on a board that respects students' opinions and their wishes.

BOARD COMMENTS:(Continued)

Mrs. Vadla thanked the public for their testimony regarding the Soldotna Area schools reconfiguration. She congratulated Kenai Central High School for being selected a 2013 Top American Field Service (AFS) School. She thanked Dr. Anderson for attending. She expressed appreciation for the administrators' and teachers' Career Development Grant reports, and highlighted some of their comments. She encouraged City of Soldotna residents to vote on April 2, 2013.

Mrs. Hilts thanked Dr. Anderson for attending. She thanked the audience for attending and the Razdolna parents for their testimony. She expressed appreciation for the meeting and the day's work that was done with students in mind. She thanked Ms. Hingley for her report and commented on air transportation into Port Graham. She commented on the challenges of the budget approval process.

Mr. Navarre thanked Dr. Anderson for attending and discussed his past work with the Board. He commented on Mr. Anderson's statement regarding committee duties and power and apologized for any miscommunication. He expressed appreciation for the Soldotna Area schools decision and stated that he prefers that the reconfiguration begin in the Fall of 2014. He commented on the school roof bonding issue, stated that the Board did not expect the original bond to complete all roofing issues, and expressed confidence in Borough administration and the public to support school needs. He thanked Mrs. Tidwell for her comments. He thanked Mr. Arness for assigning the Board to visit schools and expressed his willingness to work as a partner to improve the District.

Mrs. Downing thanked the public for their testimony. She clarified that the Legislative Committee has not made any decisions not supported by Board. She thanked Dr. Anderson for attending and expressed appreciation for working with him in the past. She stated that Dr. Allan Gee will be missed at Homer High School and discussed his success as the school's administrator.

ADJOURN:(10:13:43 PM)

At 10:13 p.m., Mr. Arness adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Mr. Joe Arness, President

Mrs. Penny Vadla, Clerk
