SCHOOL REPORTS:

Mr. David Kingsland, Seward Elementary School principal, reported on the school's enrollment and demographics; test scores and Alaska School Performance Indicators (ASPI) four star rating; various programs; sports and activities; and the student leadership team. Mr. Kingsland introduced student, Miss Madilyn Moore, Masonic Award winner and president of the 2014 School Leadership Team (SLT). Miss Moore reported on the SLT make-up, purpose, and work throughout the school year. Mr. Kingsland then introduced kindergarten teacher, Ms. Jennifer Haugh, who discussed the Schoolyard Habitat Program. Ms. Haugh explained that this program is funded through grants, including one from the Department of Fish and Wildlife, and in-kind donations. She noted program projects completed and those planned, and stated that she and Mr. Jason Aigeldinger are the grant administrators. Mr. Kingsland continued by discussing the school's "place based" education program which provides opportunities for students to work in and with the community. He shared a Photo Story of Seward Elementary students working on such projects. He noted that certain trees shown in the Photo Story have now been replaced with native tree varieties.

Moose Pass School principal, Mr. Jason Bickling, presented a PowerPoint highlighting the school's achievements; parent and community support and volunteer work; test scores; High Progress school rating by the Department of Education and Early Development (DEED); and "salmon in the schools" program; and online library use and learning. He discussed the community's outdoor and active lifestyle; the school's athletic programs including downhill skiing at Alyeska; the benefits of being a small school, theatre performances, and Lego Robotics. He shared videos of student award and recognition winning works, and of the school's students singing a song entitled "The Ocean Song."

HEARING OF DELEGATIONS:

Mr. Marc Swanson, Kenai Mountains-Turnagain Arm National Heritage Area, discussed the purpose of the organization and its formation. He explained the development of a secondary education curriculum and a series of elementary educational DVD episodes that focus on the history of the eastern Kenai Peninsula. He stated that the secondary curriculum is currently in Kenai schools and the elementary education DVD's will be distributed soon, all without cost. He shared a DVD episode on the subject of Seward's Mount Marathon. He expressed his vision of the value of these instructional resources for District students.

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS:

Ms. Mary Tougas discussed her family's experience and history in the Seward schools. She discussed her child's experience as a swimmer and the swim program's importance. She noted the lack of an observation area at the Seward Pool and stated that she wanted the Board to know of the need, the options for a solution, and that this addition would be appreciated by the swim programs.

Ms. Amy Hankins stated that she supports Ms. Tougas' request for an observation area for the swimming pool. She asked the Board to consider a four day school week or extending to a year round school calendar. She requested that the early release dates be placed on Fridays instead of on Wednesdays.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS:

Dr. Atwater noted four items in the general information packet. First, his memo stating that he does not recommend that the District accept outside funds for the Skyview pool. Second, Mr. Dusek's survey results for the early release dates and the 2014-15 schedule for these days, which includes two Fridays. Third, he noted his memo summarizing the outreach by the Citizens for the Educational Advancement of Alaska's Children (CEAAC) and stated that, if the Board is interested, he will arrange for more information or a meeting with the executive director. Finally, he pointed to the list of support staff resignations, acknowledged the extensiveness of the list and experience represented. He expressed appreciation for Mrs. Terri Tidwell and thanked her, and all of the support staff resigning, for their service to the District.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE, SITE COUNCIL AND/OR
P.T.A., K.P.A.A., K.P.E.A.,
K.P.E.S.A, BOROUGH
ASSEMBLY:

Ms. Mica VanBuskirk, Seward Site Based Council, stated that the Site Council approved a resolution in April regarding the Pupil Teacher Ratio (PTR) .5 increase and that the Council is concerned about the increase. She reported that the Council is working on recognizing and developing business partnerships and opportunities in the area. She stated that they are discussing the possibility of an honors diploma for Seward students. She announced that the Council updated their bylaws this year.

Mrs. Patty Sirois, KPESA president, stated that she visited schools before attending the meeting. She stated that she has heard positive information regarding the Seward reconfiguration. She discussed the Soldotna reconfiguration process, staffing changes, and the process of the physical move and the wages offered to current employees. She reported that three members attended the NEA-Alaska Spring Leadership Academy and discussed the trainings provided. She discussed agenda item Number 10a. (7) Leave of Absence/Support and stated that she did not request a leave of absence, but requested Association leave, and asked the Board to carefully examine the request document.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT:

Dr. Atwater announced that the Leadership Team Academy will be held on May 28 and 29, at Kenai Central High School and invited Board members to attend. He noted that this year's hiring is almost complete and thanked Ms. Joann Riener and her staff for their work on improving hiring processes. He reported on the District's work on a new American Productivity and Quality Center (APQC) project involving the review of and improvements to staffing. He thanked the Seward Site Council for their dedicated work on behalf of the Seward schools and students and for their willingness to engage in school and District affairs.

BOARD REPORTS:

Mr. Holt reported he attended the final Skyview High School Site Council meeting and expressed appreciation for the Council's work and attitude towards the school reconfiguration.

Mrs. Vadla reported that she served as a time keeper for the Future Problem Solving Competition and expressed appreciation for the students' work. She stated that she attended the BP Teachers of Excellence Awards and congratulated the nominees and BP Teacher of the Year, Ms. "Debbie" Veeck.

BOARD REPORTS:(Continued)

Mrs. Downing corrected Mrs. Vadla, noting that Ms. Barbara Veeck is the BP Teacher of the Year (not Debbie) and expressed appreciation for the celebration.

Mr. Navarre reported that he attended the BP Teachers of Excellence Awards, and expressed appreciation for BP's continued support of teachers. He attended the Mt. View principal and assistant principal interviews.

Ms. Hohl congratulated Ms. Terri McKnight, BP Teachers of Excellence nominee from Seward.
